Furthermore, a ticket may not be resold at a price higher than its initial value.

3 - TERMS OF PAYMENT

According to the delay between the date a booking is made and the date of the performance itself, you will or not have a choice between two means of payment.

A sole means of payment per order is not possible.

3.1- Payment by check :

Payment by check implies option. The check should reach us within 10 days to allow us to confirm your booking. In order to guarantee your seat reservations, your check should accompany your booking. Send your payment by check to:

billetterie

Your option will remain valid for a period of 10 days following date of booking. After this delay, if your check has not reached us, your option will be automatically invalidated.

If the date between booking and that of the performance is less than 10 days, it is not sufficient to allow payment by check. As a result and concerning a booking of less than 10 days beforehand, payment by credit card only will be proposed.
